

All revolving chairs have gas lift mechanism. The bases have 5 spokes in compliance with the laws in force, with directional versions mounted on nylon wheels. They are upholstered in class 1 fireresistant.

STEP Directional programme. The revolving armchairs are available in two beck heights. They have a polished aluminium base with an advanced pin oscillating mechanism or a chrome-plated fixed base with a slide structure. The arms are made of steel with trim.

KENT COMFORT Directional programme. The revolving armchairs are available in two beck heights. They have a polished aluminium base with an advanced pin oscillating mechanism or a chrome-plated fixed base with a slide structure. The arms are made of steel with trim.

KENT Directional programme. The revolving armchairs are available in two beck heights. They have a polished aluminium base with an advanced pin oscillating mechanism or a chrome-plated fixed base with a slide structure. The arms are made of steel plated.

PIXEL Tub armchair on wheels or feet, both for visitors at manager's level, a san alternative to our programs armchairs, and for top conference rooms.

NEST Highly technical and stylish advanced office chair. The swivel bases are available both in polished aluminium or finished in white paint. The seats are also available both in polished aluminium or finished in white paint. The seats are also available with a particular net backrest in black.

TIZIA Operative office program. The swivel seats are available with 2 backrest heights and feature a permanent contact mechanism. The nylon base, the arms and the plastic finishes are in grey. Specifications comply with law DL 626.

LED An operational programme. The revolving chairs have a permanent contact mechanism and are compliant with DL 626. The seats have black nylon bases and are available with arms which can be fixed or adjustable in terms of height.

QUID For groups and visitors. The seat and back are made of grey polypropylene. The seat of each chair can easily be equipped with a padded panel upholstered with fabric. The seat structures have a chrome finish and can be stacked, making them suitable for groups, visitors and meetings.

WEB Program for communal users or visitors. A fabric sheeted pane can be easily applied to these stackable chairs. The chrome-framed seats feature and polypropylene bodywork available in various colours. One model is also available with black net backrest and a functional big handle for shifting.

FONT Programme for groups, visitors and waiting room arrangements. The seats have a tubular steel or aluminium finish structure and can be stacked, hooked together and equipped with arms and a small writing table for conferences. They are available in an upholstered version, with a polypropylene shell and in beech wood. Seats mounted onto benches seating up to five can be equipped with a service table which can be placed in any position along by beam.

GIO For communal uses, visitors and for waiting rooms. The polypropylene bodywork is available in various colours. The stackable chairs have an aluminium finished frame. The two-to four-seater bench can be fitted with a support surface at any point of the horizontal strut, and arms can be attached between the seats or at the ends of the bench.

STEEL Benches for waiting rooms. The seats are entirely in sheet metal with aluminium finish and can be supplied with soft cushion and backrest. Aluminium finished tubular steel trestle legs. The two-to four-seater bench can be fitted with a support surface at any point of the horizontal strut, and arms can be attached between the seats or at the ends of the bench.

REGAL Single armchairs, two and three seater divans for waiting rooms. Aluminium finished tubular steel structure with cushions and thick arm rests. Waiting room table with aluminium finished structure and satin finish glass, durmast wood and wenge surfaces. These finishes are compatible with the Socam management series.

MUST Designer chairs for management waiting rooms and visitors. The encircling wooden bodywork is available in three different finishes and with cushions. The 4 part rotating chrome base has feet.

COMPLEMENTS A hallstand entirely in aluminium finish, available in two versions: with wooden or translucent plastic knobs and with or without umbrella holder; and a cheaper , also available in black, with only plastic knobs. Lastly, Socam also offers a practical multifunctional trolley, two types of wastepaper basket and a computer tower trolley, all in metal and with aluminium finish.